

Positions open in World Bank funded project

Water Resources Investigation and Development Department, Government of West Bengal, has started the project called 'ACCELERATED DEVELOPMENT OF MINOR IRRIGATION (ADMI)' IN WEST BENGAL, in March, 2012. This is an external aided project with funding assistance from International Development Association (The World Bank). To strengthen their projects across districts (DPMUs) of West Bengal WBADMI invites applications from Indian Nationals for the following vacant positions.

Programme Coordinator - 18
Environment Specialist - 18
Fisheries Specialist - 7

For details regarding age, qualification, eligibility criteria, selection process, key tasks and instructions please visit our website : www.wbadmip.org and also www.banglarmukh.com

Candidates will be required to apply online only through the link 'APPLY ONLINE' between 03.03.2014 / 10.00 hrs to 23.03.2014 / 17.00 hrs in the aforesaid websites.

The logo for Randstad, featuring a stylized 'r' symbol followed by the word 'randstad' in a lowercase, sans-serif font.

Staffing | Search & Selection | HR Solutions | Inhouse Services

Size : 8 cm (w) x 9 cm (h)